The Ministry of Health of the Czech Republic has cooperated with the Aspena s.r.o. translation company pursuant to a tender for the provision of translation and interpreting services since August 2009.

During the course of our cooperation the Aspena company handled dozens of jobs – translations and proofreading – specially from Czech to English (and vice versa), other foreign languages include German, Russian and French. In terms of terminology, the jobs usually consisted in professional texts and documents from the area of healthcare, medicine and law. The Aspena company has been providing other forms of services, e.g. consecutive and simultaneous interpreting for the Minister of Health during her foreign visits.

To this date, the overall value of jobs amounts to approximately CZK 430,000.

Services offered to the Ministry of Health of the Czech Republic by the Aspena s.r.o. company have always been provided in the requested quality and in a timely manner. Based on our experience we can recommend the Aspena s.r.o. company as a reliable and professional partner in the provision of translation and interpreting services.
