Porsche Slovakia is engaged in the import and sale of the vehicles Volkswagen and Audi in Slovakia since 1994.

One of our principal objectives is to create a system of dealers that supplies not only sales but also complete services for customers. That's why we have been cooperating with Aspena, s.r.o. – translation and interpreting since 2003. They provide us with translations from English and German in the required quality while agreed deadlines are kept.
